ARE YOU FOR US OR OUR ENEMIES?

Ever felt unsure where you stand with someone? Maybe you've met a new colleague, a neighbour, or a person who suddenly steps into your space, and you find yourself wondering: are they a friend, a threat, or something in between? It's a deeply human instinct, and Joshua feels something similar in Joshua 5.

He's alone near Jericho, carrying the weight of leading Israel into the land, when he encounters a warrior with a drawn sword. Unsure and perhaps afraid, Joshua wants to know where he (and this other) stands. So he asks "Are you for us, or for our enemies?"

It's the kind of question we all ask, because we tend to read the world from our perspective. Who is with me? Who is against me? Who might help my goals, and who might hinder them? It's not always selfish; often it's simply how we navigate uncertainty.

"Neither," the warrior replies. Not yes, not no, not us, not them. Instead, the commander of the Lord's army steps outside Joshua's categories entirely. He has not come to join Joshua's side, nor Jericho's side.

The answer is enigmatic, unexpected. Remember that Joshua has been anointed by Moses, filled with the Spirit, and directly commissioned by God to take the Promised Land (Deut 31:7-9; Joshua 1:1-9). Joshua is not simply doing his own thing—he is pursuing the very mission God has given him; against God's enemies.

And yet the angel still replies, "Neither."

The commander arrives representing God's side alone. And that frames everything. Allegiances are not binary. The question is not whether God will align himself with Joshua (and his understanding of God's mission), but whether Joshua will align himself with God and what God is doing in this moment.

Joshua 5 offers us the same invitation. Like Joshua, at times we can be convinced we are doing God's work, even opposing God's enemies, and so we read the playing field as people being either with us or against us. But before we divide the world into "for us" and "against us," we need to remember that God's purposes often run deeper than our categories and tribal allegiances.

Joshua approaches with confusion and caution. He ends kneeling, listening. Sometimes that is where clarity begins.

Grace & peace,
David Rietveld

PRAYER POINTS

Please pray for our staff team and their families.

- For David & Marianne Rietveld, Scott and Myfanwy Warner, Ness and Neil Hughes, Mel Bell, Indira and Matt Ryan, Emily and Michael Tong, Amelia and Stewart Ross, and Beth Boyd.
- Pray that God will protect them from the evil one, unite them as a team and give them wisdom as they lead the ministries of St Andrew's.

Please pray for our Outreach:

- Please pray that as members of St Andrew's go about their everyday lives, they will be looking to live for Jesus. In this way, pray that their actions and words may reflect what they know to be true of Jesus and pray that this causes people to question what they believe.
- Pray that people will be able to give an answer as to who Jesus is and how he has changed their lives.
- Pray that we will be missional as we look to reach our family, friends and those who live in Roseville and the surrounding communities.

Please pray for our Belonging to one another:

- That we will be a church that helps people who come to feel they belong
- Pray for wisdom as we welcome people on site and that every member of the church will be looking to welcome and include new people
- Pray especially for our welcome programs such as the 'belonging' and 'newish' lunches. Pray that we might become a church that looks to show hospitality to one another and build authentic relationships with each other.
- Pray that we will be known as a church that loves Jesus and each other.

Please pray for all Churches in Australia:

- For the many churches that meet, not just in Sydney, but around Australia.
- Pray for the salvation of Australians and pray that Australian churches may be a good witness of the Lord Jesus Christ.
- Pray that God will protect the churches in Australia from false teaching and protect those who minister in them from the work of the evil one.
- Pray that the churches of Australia might unite under the Lordship of Jesus Christ, by his Spirit, so that we can show a unified message of Salvation.

JAMES SMITH'S INDUCTION SERVICE

James Smith's Induction Service will be held on Tuesday 20th January, 7.30pm at St Andrew's Roseville. This is a special service to mark James' appointment as Rector of St Andrew's, and to commission James for his ministry to Roseville in the years to come. All are welcome.

JAMES SMITH'S FIRST SUNDAY

James' first Sunday at St Andrew's will be on Sunday 25th January.

There will be a light lunch after the 10am service, and a light supper before the 6pm service (at 5pm) to celebrate James' arrival. Both lunch and supper will be catered so you do not need to bring anything.

JANUARY SERVICE TIMES

During January, we are combining our services into one morning service at 10am, and one evening service at 6pm. The second half of the 10am service will be live-streamed as usual.

SERVING ON PARISH COUNCIL

From 1 January this year, all Parish Councillors and Wardens are required to have completed Faithfulness in Service (FiS) and hold a current Working With Children Check (WWCC). These requirements must be current at the time of voting at our AGM.

If you are considering standing for a leadership role, you will need to complete both of these prior to the AGM in order to be eligible.

The date of the AGM is to be confirmed, but will likely be held on a Monday evening at the beginning of March.

Please prayerfully consider your availability for leadership, and make the necessary preparations so that you are appropriately equipped and compliant to serve.
